Across India, communities and individuals are exploring ways of ensuring human well-being and prosperity through more democratic, ecologically sensitive and culturally rooted ways. This book puts together 9 powerful stories from different social and ecological contexts. Collectively, they challenge inequality, ecological damage, centralised governance, and the currently dominant model of development.

1. The Niyamgiri Story: Challenging the idea of growth without limits ~ Meenal Tatpati, Ashish Kothari and Rashi Mishra
2. Imlee Mahuua: Learning in freedom, the democratic way ~ Nyla Coelho and Sujatha Padmanabhan
3. The Timbaktu Collective: Very much on the map ~ Ashish Kothari
4. Kachchh: Strengthening local livelihoods with ecological considerations ~ Shiba Desor and Vinay Nair
6. Kuthumbakkam: Re-embedding economy in society ~ Adam Cajka
7. Maati ~ Vinay Nair and Shiba Desor
8. Restoration of Kaikondrahalli Lake in Bengaluru: Forging a new urban commons ~ Harini Nagendra
